Tears

As December Falls

You've got tears in your ears
From where you've been lying down
When you cry
Oh why
Why you gotta always cry?

You thought I'd be sad, oh you thought I'd be mad
Oh you thought
You thought wrong

Can't even see the light
I really think that I
Can put up quite a fight
I really think that I need to keep moving

Up
Take me higher
Than you ever did see before
Than you ever did see
Than you ever did see
Than you ever did see before

Today was a bad day
Got me feeling so sad out of place
I feel like I'm running out
Of time to win this race

Being at war with myself
You're all saying it's a call out for help
Well It's not healthy I see
I know you see straight through me

Can't even see the light
I really think that I
Can put up quite a fight
I really think that I need to keep moving

Take me higher
Than you ever did see before
Than you ever did see
Than you ever did see
Than you ever did see before

God knows that I need saving
But I don't want your help
Heaven knows I need no saviour
Cause I can only save myself

God knows that I need saving
But I don't want your help
Heaven knows I need no saviour

Take me higher
Than you ever did see before
Than you ever did see
Than you ever did see
