

I know I'm not my best but I feel it coming closer now (closer now)

Everything I say in jest

Only knowing I'm yet to rest

Cry it out, cry it out, let it run, let it run

As I'm screaming out, face down the barrel of a gun

All that I've forgotten

Lies within

Now that it's in blossom

Won't disappear

I promise it's not stopping

Seeing clear

Now that it's in blossom

I'm facing fear

Our minds they keep us frozen

Iced into a world that we hold like a burden

Bound and tied

Intolerant, in our own lie

How can I reach for stars

When they are falling apart

All that I've forgotten

Lies within

Now that it's in blossom

Won't disappear

I promise it's not stopping

Seeing clear

Now that it's in blossom

I'm facing fear

Endless life lessons

Fed up of these false confessions

I'm here to confess

I've been hateful I've been spiteful

And I'm trying my best

As I'm learning to grow

All that I've forgotten

Lies within

Now that it's in blossom

Won't disappear (disappear)

Won't disappear (disappear)
