

Felt Like Home

As Everything Unfolds

Felt like home to me

Caught in the moment
Wrestled by the fear
Can I help you, my dear?
If we keep running from our fear alone
We'll never ever feel at home

Pushed into the corner
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me
In this room
Oh, it's only ever felt like home
As I fall into the dark
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me
In this room
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me

Felt like home to me

I'm knocking on doors
Leaving them open
Hoping I can heal the scar
Only to find I've left that world ajar

Pushed into the corner
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me
In this room
Oh, it's only ever felt like home
As I fall into the dark
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me
In this room
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me

Felt like home, felt like home to me
Felt like home

As I fall into the empty space all I wanted was to see your grace
Give me something to believe as fall into your embrace
Can't you see progress is calling me
Can't you see fear is haunting me
Can't you see progress is calling me
Can't you see fear is haunting me

Pushed into the corner
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me
In this room
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me
Felt like home, felt like home to me
In this room
Oh, it's only ever felt like home to me
