

Tides

As Everything Unfolds

Watch these two oceans collide
As I'm swept out into your tide
These laws of love I will abide
Sinking deeper all the time

Don't let me rain on your parade
I have seen your heart been betrayed
If you don't want me then banish at your will
For this love is everything I need to fulfill

As time passes I will not fall apart
And I have known wholly from the start
You are my living other half
Only growing fonder of your part

Don't let me rain on your parade
I have seen your heart been betrayed
If you don't want me then banish at your will
For this love is everything I need to fulfill my Life with you
Life with you
Life with you
Life with you

Watch these two oceans collide
As I'm swept out into your tide
