

Twilight

As Everything Unfolds

Casket-sized, am I right?
Weak and pitiful in your eyes
First-class funeral brigade
I'm not saying we become unmade
Sweet and bitter as nightshade
Life replayed, life decayed

For all this glory, I could settle in twilight
Don't say it, don't want it, don't wake it
Relinquish all control, and I won't let it show

Say it, say it say you want it right now
Say it right now

Casket-sized, not my time
I've decided to make this climb
Scared of moving in between the lines
Forced to excise in my confines
Living time by the guidelines
This is my life, this is my time

For all this glory, I could settle in twilight
Don't say it, don't want it, don't wake it
Relinquish all control, and I won't let it show

Don't say, don't want it, don't wake it
Don't say, don't want it, don't wake it

Casket-sized, am I right?
No, it's not the end
No it's not the end

No not
No not tonight

Not tonight
For all this glory I
Could settle in twilight

For all this glory I could settle in twilight

For all this glory I could settle in twilight
Don't say, don't want it, don't wake it
Relinquish all control and I won't let it show
