

You Will Be

As Everything Unfolds

You drag us down but we will
Be the last ones standing
Take it all away from me
Whisk it away beneath my feet
Temporary states of mind
Are we living a waste of time?
You say that seeing is believing
But I don't see you bleeding

You will be the everlasting
You will be all I wanted
You will be the everlasting
You will be all I wanted

I will bow in the light and cower in the dark
Dance in the fire and drown in the waves
All I wanted was to see the perfect lies we believe
All I wanted was the time to grieve the things I can't unsee

You will be the everlasting
You will be all I wanted
You will be the everlasting
You will be all I wanted
