

Behind Me Lies Another Fallen Soldier

As I Lay Dying

I wanted to bring you all that is in my heart I wanted to give you my everything but I've failed you I've failed you so many times how can I stand here how can I stand here before you

How can I stand here before you when I begin to steal
what only belongs to you
what only belongs to you

I am able to bring you Nothing that isn't already yours

I am so ashamed, I'm so ashamed Of what I ever called my own Take what I have, take these broken remains What can I give to you that you don't already deserve

You laid down your life when I refused to give mine
