Empty Hearts

As I Lay Dying

I've watched them build
Upon these empty hearts

I've watched them build Upon these empty hearts False hopes of lossless paradise Gathering together

The dead hearts beat as one Stillborn comfort feeding lies Through answers of self denial Divided between a dissolute self And the sorrow of sincere devotion Devotion

What is it that you find peace in now? Where is your hope in this dark night?

What is it that you find peace in now? Where is your hope in this dark night?
