

Final Mistake

As The Structure Fails

I feel so empty here
Underground there's no sound
For the soil consumes me now
Confronts me with my dissolution

Carried down
To the ground I'm not proud
That I'm in my casket now
Drop the casket down
Into my grave

(A broken picture of my afterlife)

All my fears became my fate
All those tears turned into hate
The choice was mine to make
My final fucking mistake

My final mistake

Oh I wish I never found
The dark place that I'm in
For the wicked consumes me now
Confronts me like a voice of reason

Carried down
To the ground I'm not proud
That I'm in my casket now
Drop the casket down
Into my grave

All my fears became my fate
All those tears turned into hate
The choice was mine to make
My final pill to take

All my fears became my fate
All those tears turned into hate
The choice was mine to make
My final fucking mistake

Underground is where I'm found
Find me screaming without sound

Underground is where I'm found
Find me screaming without sound

Underground is where I'm found

It's too late to turn back (I can't take it)

I dismissed the prayers from above
Instead the wretched ran straight through my blood
I envy all those I judged
Never again
Never again
What have I done?...
