

Pure Devastation

As The Structure Fails

I'm standing alone
Do my words fall on deaf ears
You hear the sound
So deafening

Can you feel the emptiness
Decide my heart content
The hate that you've instilled in me
Had me buried in the sand
I find apology a sign of weakness
Our relationship kept in secret

You will learn what it's like to feel
Dead inside
No fucking mercy for the deceiver
You will never repent again
No fucking mercy for the deceiver
You will never repent again

I'm standing alone
Do my words fall on deaf ears
You hear the sound
So deafening

They'll be torn down
There'll be no peace
No fucking resolution for humanity
God damn our new generation
Only living to see the end
Where's your compassion

They'll be torn down
There'll be no peace
No fucking resolution for humanity
God damn our new generation
Only living to see the end
Where's your compassion
God damn our new generation
Only living to see the end
Where's your compassion

The last line of defence
The last line of defence

Bow down to no one
Tear down their weakness
Bow down to no one
Tear down their weakness
Bow down to no one
