

Three sixty five days a year
I give you all my love
I do what a good wife should do
Sometimes it gets too little too much
Five years I've been with you
If you didn't love me all these years
Something's wrong with you boy
You keep roaming the street
Making all them little kids ignoring me

Oh woo oh woo oh
Oh I really love you
Yes I do
Hey hey ee hey hey
Oh I really love you
Yes I do
If you love me like you say you do
Love is not a changing thing
If you love me like you say you do
Love, it's an eternal thing
If love me like you say you do
Show me

Can take your sorry tales
And tell it to someone who cares
Five years I roll with you
And If you didn't want me all these years
Something's wrong with you boy
You keep running the street
Making all them little kids ignoring me

Oh woo oh woo oh
Oh I really love you
Yes I do
Hey hey ee hey hey
Oh I really love you
Yes I do
If you love me like you say you do
Love is not a changing thing
If you love me like you say you do
Love it's an eternal thing
If love me like you say you do
Show me
