

Dead Again

Aşa

No more your freaking bullshit
No more your talking of lies
No more you put me down
Deceptive blue eyes
Wake up and smell the coffee
Wake up and take a pill
You think I won't go on without you
You really think I will fail
You really are a fool
You sentimental fool
And I kinda feel sorry for you

What's going around
You talking me down
But I found out that
So it was you
So it was you
You picked up the knife
And you cut me in two
You stabbed me in the back
And then you twisted it in
Oh oh oh
You left me for dead again

No more you blame Jesus
Why don't you pick a lane
I felt that you were normal
But you are devil insane
I tried to keep you grounded
Cause it's no good for my health
But you really can't save a man from himself
There's so much I can say
Before I turn to break all ties with you

Cos what's going around
You talking me down
But I found out that
So it was you
So it was you
You picked up the knife
And then you cut me in two
You stabbed me in the back
And then you twisted it in
Oh oh oh
You left me for dead again

So it was you
You picked up the knife
And then you cut me in two
Oh oh

Soldiers foremost
You are no proof

So it was you
It was really you
And then you cut me in two
Then you twisted it in
Oh oh

You, so it was you
And then you cut me in two
And then you twisted it in
Oh oh
E e
