

My Old Pain

Asaf Avidan

I'm in love again
With my old pain
With my old pain
Save me from the same
Perpetual game
Of my own name

Every time the Weeping Willow dances in the breeze
Please remind everybody that I smile with ease
Not too long ago
So honey, don't let go (ooh)
Of what you know of me (ooh)

I am dressed to kill
In my old skin
In my old skin
Save me from the same
Primordial sin

That's deep within

Every time I'm hungry, waves come dancing in the sand
Please remind this broken shell it used to be a man
Not too long ago
So honey, don't let go (ooh)
Of what you know of me (ooh)

Take heed of the ocean and the scent of the storm
And whisper the West Wind and guide me back home

I'm in love again
With my old pain
With my old pain
