Serenity

Asaf Avidan

Whoa
Oh

I went down, down, down
And I hit the ground
Then I went down some more
Found another floor I
Never knew existed before
You said up, up, up
Or at least stop
But I never hear you when I drop now

I unfurl
I unfurl

Suddenly
I'm everywhere
The earth and sky are one and
I am part of them
Oh, nigh
Serenity
Oh, nigh
Serenity

We are
So unpredictable
And we are
So undepictable
And I fall
In the thick of it all
I fall
To the river's call

Then you call out my name
And it's always the same
I come home
And when you call out my name
And it's always the same
I come home

I went deep, deep, deep
Deeper even than my sleep
Then I found a deeper shade of blue
I never knew that
If I just let go, I'll fall into
You said no, no, no
Honey, don't you go
Let me pick all of you up and let me show you

I unfurl
I unfurl

Suddenly
There's ground again
The earth and sky are back and
I can breathe again
It's overdue

This song of you
Serenity
Mm, serenity
Serenity
Is here

We are
So unpredictable
We are
So undepictable
I fall
To the thick of it all
I fall
To the river's call
All is
Indivisible
All is Irresistible

Cry out
Cry out
I unravel
I said, cry out
Cry out
I untangle
I said, cry out
Cry out
Serenity
I said, cry out
Cry out
Serenity

Then you call out my name
And it's always the same
I come home
Yeah, you call out my name
And it's always the same
I come home

Honey, hold me now
Honey, hold me again
Honey, hold me now
Honey, hold me down
Honey, form me now
Honey, show me the way
Oh, oh
Let me tell you, baby
When a man falls down
When a man falls down and, honey
Honey, I need you
Honey, I need you
To guide me back home

We go kiss, kiss, kiss
Sometimes we hit, sometimes we miss
But I guess that we just roll like this
