

The Devil And Me

Asaf Avidan

All my bones are creaking
And my eyes are leaking

But all these fingers are speaking
Through the strings

They're freakin' out
And everybody's wasting time

I'll say it again... [repeat]

Oh the devil and me
We're playing games we shouldn't be
K i s s i n g

Way up and around my tree

I used to have a yellow ring

Around the color of my eye

But now it's gone and all that's left is
