

Bartender

Asal

And just like that, back to square one
Lost another day one
All this time beside you I guess it ain't really meant none
I've never been the type to sip no drink with no occasion, but
If I want to keep you off my mind I gotta stay drunk

Like wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Don't you let my cup run empty
Keep 'em coming in please
Bartender, I know that you get me
Like wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Don't you let my cup run empty
Keep 'em coming in please (uh)
Bartender, I know that you get me

Uh, uh
I been out my mind
Five shots in, more like five times five
My eyes dried from the times I cried
You ain't change shit, not even after all I tried
Against me instead of being by my side
Again being sneaky when you're out my sight
I been tryna hold you down and make this right
But you been switching on me every left and right
No matter what it's all in your favour
I'm outta luck nobody can save her
No point to argue when your minds made up
You don't listen, and I'm fed up
You win the games even though I play hard
I heard the referee's paid off
I heard you're running 'round late nights
You thought that's under my radar
Hold up wait, I said wait
Wait a minute baby say sum
Don't you try to run off with no explanation
I've never been the type to sip no drink with no occasion, but
If I wanna keep you off my mind I gotta stay drunk

Like wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Don't you let my cup run empty
Keep 'em coming in please (uh)
Bartender, I know that you get me
Like wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)

Pour another drink (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Don't you let my cup run empty
Keep 'em coming in please (uh)
Bartender, I know that you get me

Who, who's taken my place?
I'm gon' drink, until I can't feel my face
Till' I can't feel my face
Feel my face
Feel my face

Taking this LSD
And I'm gon do it so carelessly (ok)
Takin these pills to sleep
Wake up can't feel a thing (ok)
Killing my self esteem
Swear I been killing myself like this
When you not with me I get like this
Drink till' the bar running out of drinks

Like wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Pour another drink (uh)
Don't you let my cup run empty
Keep 'em coming in please (uh)
Bartender I know that you get me
Like wait, (uh)
Wait, (uh)

Pour another drink (uh)

Don't you let my cup run empty
Keep 'em coming in please (uh)
Bartender I know that you get me
