

Liars & Players

Asal

No, I don't want no love, I'm in the club tonight
Yeah, turn the lights all down real low
Let the bass shake the whole damn floor
Pour up 'til I feel no more, more, more
Said I left my heart back home
Better off being on my own
No, I don't want no one's love, I'm in the club tonight
Kill all the lights, I can't tell no wrong from right
I ain't gon' try for another damn time
I'm tired of these bitches, they're all alike
And you'd know how I feel
If you really could hear when I let it out on the mic
So, I don't want your love tonight
No, I don't want your-

Pour up them drinks
Yeah, I've gone crazy but I need me, one more
Liars and players, her man's back home
And he feel no ways 'cause he don't know
She's in the club looking for love
Give her the world and it won't be enough
Pour up them drinks
Yeah, I've gone crazy but I need me, one more
Liars and players, her man's back home
And he feel no ways 'cause he don't know
She's in the club looking for love
Give her the world and it won't be enough

Pour up the-, pour up the drink
Fill up the-, fill up the cup with the pink
Don't wanna feel and I don't wanna think
Double my vision and it's out of sync
Ain't doing it right if you ain't by the sink
By the end of the night, swearing you'll never drink
Doing it wrong if you wake up tomorrow
And don't see your body, it's covered in ink

Pour up them drinks, don't want no
Pour up them drinks, don't want no
(Love) She's in the club

Pour up them drinks
Yeah, I've gone crazy but I need me, one more
Liars and players, her man's back home
And he feel no ways 'cause he don't know
She's in the club looking for love
Give her the world and it won't be enough
Pour up them drinks
Yeah, I've gone crazy but I need me, one more
Liars and players, her man's back home
And he feel no ways 'cause he don't know
She's in the club looking for love
Give her the world and it won't be enough

She's in the club
