

You

Asal

I hate it when I'm far from you
If you wanna run away baby I'll follow you
Yeah it's summer baby and we got a lot to do
So I gotta borrow you from home for just a month or two, yeah

I really wish you could've stayed
I been in my head
Thinking bout' something that you said to me last night
Your perfumes all up on my bed
I can't get you out my motha fucking head cause I know
Soon I'll be a stranger to you
Ain't it strange that someday you'll leave me outta the blue
I can't stand the thought of you beside of somebody new
I wish I could hide you in some place where nobody knew

Could you promise me that we will never play by the rules that
That you meant it all and everything's true
You gotta let me know if I've been a fool for
For loving you as fucking much as I do
Yeah baby am I a fool?

I hate it when I'm far from you
If you wanna run away baby I'll follow you
Yeah it's summer baby and we got a lot to do
I wish I could borrow you from home for just a month or two, yeah
Baby I can't get enough of you
Don't know how you're so beautiful I don't got a clue
I hope that I'm good enough to be the one for you
You can break my heart a hundred times and I won't run from you, yeah

I love you but I hate you cause you're perfect
You got those hypnotizing eyes and I think that they're working on me
Cause when you leave I'm always hurting
But everyday that goes you show me that you're fucking worth it
Fuck all of our friends cause I don't like them to be honest
They always on narcotics
Teenage alcoholics
I know I'm just a kid with just a dollar in my pockets
But I promise I can give you everything I fucking promised

Could you promise me that we will never play by the rules that
That you meant it all and everything's true
You gotta let me know if I've been a fool for
For loving you as fucking much as I do
Baby am I a fool?

I hate it when I'm far from you
If you wanna run away baby I'll follow you
Yeah it's summer baby and we got a lot to do
I wish I could borrow you from home for just a month or two, yeah
Baby I can't get enough of you
Don't know how you're so beautiful I don't got a clue
I hope that I'm good enough to be the one for you
You can break my heart a hundred times and I won't run from you, yeah
I hate it when I'm far from you
If you wanna run away baby I'll follow you
Yeah it's summer baby and we got a lot to do

I wish I could borrow you from home for just a month or two

Baby I can't get enough of you

One day you will realize I'm not enough for you

Don't make me bleed

Don't make me feel like I'm a fool

Cause I gave you all of me and I would give it all for you, yeah
