

Legend

Asan

When I pull up on a hater watch a hater fall back
I'm too good with these hands, watch a hater fall flat
If I die, all I know I'm a mothafuckin' legend
It's so great for my city, I'm the realist one that's reppin'

Oh my God, oh my God
If I die, I'm a legend
When they lay me down to rest, I know I was always reppin'
Oh my God, my whole life, my words been my greatest weapon
I know I, I know I, been the coast's greatest blessing

Oh my God, oh my God
If I die, I'm a legend
When they lay me down to rest, I know I was always reppin'
Oh my God, my whole life, my words been my greatest weapon
I know I, I know I, been the coast's greatest blessing

Better recognize a king when he rappin' with you
You hoes suck its like you always bring a vacuum with you
Silent like a mannequin but you ain't plastic is you?
Cause if you got up on a pick, I got a matchin' issue
Talking about me then it gotta be lies
Cause I never get a tag, or a chance to reply
If you don't got the courage to mention me
Then you can fuck yourself wit ya phone until the battery dies
I mean you mad at me why? Cause I had to be fly
Two albums in a year and I can't even try
Tried to fill my shoes, then you had to re size
I'm the king, on the throne, bitch it's where I reside

When I pull up on a hater watch a hater fall back
I'm too good with these hands, watch a hater fall flat
If I die, all I know I'm a mothafuckin' legend
It's so great for my city, I'm the realist one that's reppin'

Oh my God, oh my God
If I die, I'm a legend
When they lay me down to rest, I know I was always reppin'
Oh my God, my whole life, my words been my greatest weapon
I know I, I know I, been the coast's greatest blessing
