

Just Do It

ASAP Ferg

Open your mind, let the words flow (let the words flow)
Baby you was mine, I'd let the world know (I'd let the world know)
She rocking my jersey, all up in the stands
I learn how to touch her without using my hands
Problems too deep for any therapist
If we could run it back, would you cherish it?
Uh, like I cherish you
But now, you get replaced like a pair of shoes

We drowning and I'm wasting my breath
Trying to keep these  who don't wanna be kept
We hiding our feelings but our eyes are speaking
We should leave or fall like it's autumn season
But I'm not for monogamy
My heart is out of space, I'm talking astronomy
Weight up on our chest but you not as strong as me
If all we do is argue maybe you not the one for me
Take one to see
But enough with all this sap shit
Good  make a nigga do a backflip (Backflip)
My chick bas, she out here comitting felonies
But do I give her long dick or longevity?
Or I'll probably give her that long
If she go to sleep, she make me wrap her in an arm
'Fore she wake up, Forrest Gump, I'll be gone
And she think I'm 'bout to *, she prolly smoking the strong
Listen, me and my niggas more gifted than Christmas
Every time I'm with the team, we taking they *****
Every time I'm on the scene, we taking 'em pictures
Every time we getting cream, we baking 'em swishas
Yeah, don't hate the player, hate the game (hate the game)
She'll just tell you, me and you just ain't the same (just ain't the same)
And I don't do this for the fame, boy
Studio the play station, this is not a game, boy

'Cause I'm the only one they wanna fuck with now
But they be hating on the low
But I done took the game and flipped it upside down
Balling ain't the only thing I know
'Cause I'm the only one they wanna fuck with now
But they be hating on the low
But I done took the game and flipped it upside down
Balling ain't the only thing I know

Yeah, uh
Swish!
Just landed in Beantown, stomp my feet down
Had to encore like the sweep down, life is sweet now
Bad Brazilian ass with the bounce, I caught the rebound
We the champions, confetti still up in the streets now
Ballin', ain't the only thing we know
I think it's kinda obviously, Jaylen up in the studio
I hit the big lotto when I'm calling my rubies rose
Getting big models walking out of them Louis shows
We getting paid, selling hope in these verses
Build a farewell for breaking the family curses
Ballin' ain't shit if you don't know what your worth is

We divine design, everything been perfect
