All those changing faces

I'll go with them phases

So Long since I've seen a shit could feel a change

Every

Shit could feel a change

Every

Long since I've seen a shit could feel a change

Love calls for the price tag in the ball court

Still love you when we part though

Blame me like its my fault

Still love, still love came

Hop around like you hardcore

Hop around like you parkour

Spillin' off

Still love, still love came

Still love, still love came

Still love, still love came (changes)

Still love, still love came

Look, I gotta text from this girl I used to see

Saying that she chose this other guy with whom she wanna be with

Well, I apologise, but this message fucked me up

Then I would ski-ski every girl when after applying best of luck to ya

Fast forward couple months I'm like "Wassup witcha?"

Cos something changed I know ya feel it (feel it)

But really its been a little minute

Ain't nothing changed but the address, my neighbors hate how I be living (living)

Mad there's a loud rich nigga in the building

Like fuck all the other tenants, (running)

Bought mine but you renting, (running)

Rich niggas in your feelings, (running)

Rich niggas in your feelings

Pants packed, knapsack packed like I'm leaving home

They ain't want to let me go, guess you need me more

I was on the road on tour

She just said I changed for the worst

Rain flags, rainbacks guess you need it more

Had to let your heart go, guess you need it more

(Changes)

Sweetest smile

(Phases)

Upside down

(Phases)

I'll be cruel to you

(Changes)

Come on if you love me now

These ain't monkey bars, for no fucking kiddy park

Hit you with the chicky pox nigga shitting on me, need my litty box

Lean gone, see the fox

Old three Billy Park, by the candy shop

Fifty vicky fox

Time to give them what they want right?

Give 'em love mixed with Biggie Pac

Weird nigga from the block

Square bitches getting boxed

She pussy popping Iggy Pop

You pussy niggas really pop

Thanks for the light, waiting for the light

Change for a lifetime

Thanks for the night, drinks for the night

Waiting for the right time

(What a wonderful life)

(Changed for the better changed for the worse)

So far I done been and feelin' change, changes

So far I done been and feelin' change, changes

My biggest distractions is that I get distracted

People suing me for shit that didn't happen

I wonder how the world would be if they didn't have me

Wake up to my explore page

See my exes engaged, or either getting married

Or had a baby with some nigga

Or either three months, post-natal post, post nup, that little nigga pappy

I wonder if they really happy or just getting at me

So long since I've seen a shit could feel a changes

Changes

Could feel a changes

Changes

Long since I've seen a shit could feel a changes

Changes

So Long since I've seen a shit could feel a changes

Changes

Shit could feel a changes
