

Shit like that (We outside, man)
And if I ever took your bitch, I gave the bitch right back

Yo, before Flacko dropped the album, I had rifles like I'm Malcolm
I was sticking up bodegas, I ain't never see this outcome
You risked everything in housing, I was slipping, I was drowning
Lacking credit for a house, feel like I could move a mountain

Motivated by the anger, all them days I couldn't doubt it
Then by thirty, blow a mill', I couldn't even finish counting
Put potatoes on the silencer, they hunting for a mouse
Looked at Sarah as my spouse, that's the fever in her blouse

Finding bullets in my couches, Sin City with a voucher
I know vultures, I know snakes, so the eagle told falcon
Ain't no lion, ain't no tiger, ain't no bear that could doubt me
Stretch a package out like Dhalsim, now I'm Barcelona browsing

I did everything in doses, I might never get my flowers
So I'm giving out these roses, through the concrete I'm sprouting
Photosynthesize the route, this my Lehman idol bounce
I make the most of the moment for my homies on the count

Streets made an animal, Rob Schneider
I was late to my graduation, Bon Iver
I had the J's in a circle like a bonfire
RVD kicking through the barbed wire

Speeding on a cruise like I'm John Geiger
Mama raised a black sheep, they treat me like the white tiger
27 packs to the staff, need a white lighter
Gunning for the kill, treat ya sis like I'm Mike Myers

The world is yours, you could have it all like Michelle Pfeiffer
Champagne Lex look like apple cider
Top pick, never be a Harold Miner
It's like Dreamville, we scheming on the Carolina

Rushing to the bay like the 49ers
Million dollar dream, only started with a couple dollars
Only on the team if you thorough and kept it solid
I found my purpose just to spread the knowledge

I'm really that nigga, I'm just being modest
I'm really him, Duncan, I'm just being honest

Yeah
Know that sunshine shine brighter when the rain gone, yeah
I could never be alone, I'm outside with my angels, yeah
I be in my mind and my mind on my pesos, yeah
I feel you shining down, I can still see your halo
Still see your halo
