

Pyramid Wheels

ASG

Catch me in a trance with my heart failing to move
Crush me with a glance at childhood dreams in echoes
Cash me out a fortune of violence, let's spend it, see it through

Yeah, they're old hounds but they still know to follow

Track me down a dead end trail towards no tomorrow
Whip me with the sound of remorse deep within you
Crash me on a course to my own screaming atoll
For it's all dark now and evil has a light on

I used to be the roam in big skies
Do you tend to lose control?
You bet sometimes

Forever is a chance that I won't take without you
Redemption is the horse that I intend to ride on Memory is the land that we resist to go through
When all else fails, and it will, you know I won't

I used to be the roam in big skies
Do you tend to lose control?
You bet sometimes
