

Mare Procellarum

Asgaard

With every tear Our dance is getting hot
Nestled in the velvet of the Night
You spin among the stars of my dreams
I chose You, for ever
You will dance in my embrace
Thirsting for sin, naked and damned!
Beyond the frame of a picture
Which is called - Life
Fiery dance reduced to ashes Our bodies
Only the brightness of your eyes leads me farther
Through the depth of heavenly infinity
There is no other light here
Only that brightness, just like a lonely
Bird of paradise riding on a dead horizon

Dance! Again and again!
Let the Universe burns in the admiration
For the beauty of Your body's moves
And sing! Sing to the melody of the wild desire!
Feel the wind raising Us into the air
Far away
Over the closed shell of time
Feel, how we spin among the stars...
There, where I found You once
Adorned in the sapphire-blue sky
