

Borderland

Ásgeir

I've got you on my mind
Soaring through silent skies
Over the coastal city
'Cross the ocean

And I'm carried on a breeze
Up north is where I'm going
On the borderland of sleep
Where you're living

I want to be with you
I know you through and through
Dreams form and days go by
My companion

And I'm carried on a breeze
Up north is where I'm going
On the borderland of sleep
Where you're living

I fall asleep
Get numb in my feet
And hear something in my soul

You're telling stories
Sing me a verse in
Languages no one knows

Halfway I wake up
Thwarted by bad luck
Wind's blowing from the west

Slowly the night moves
I'm feeling mournful
My love is gone away

But I know where I am bound
In time I'll be returning
Back when all the lights go out
And I'm dreaming

I'll be carried on a breeze
Up north is where I'm going
On the borderland of sleep
Where you're living
