

Dreaming

Ásgeir

In an endless spin
And without you leaving
Flowing over every cup
If you know you're dreaming
If your worlds are crossing
And this dark should fall

Look up to the stars
In the darkness glowing
And when you're out there soaring high
Without your body flowing
Don't hesitate
You're dreaming after all

Over fields of green
In the sunlight gleaming
Leaving all I know behind
Now I know I'm dreaming
I follow every line that leads to you
