

Giantess

Ásgeir

The night is a giantess
Carefully brewing
Venomous water
That can delete all light
That can delete all light

Scared of the everyday
Giggles and laughter
He tried to cut you with
The blade of being
The blade of being

You barely got away
Escaped yet another day

When in the morning she
Looks at its majesty
She turns into a stone
Within your memory
Within your memory

You barely got away
Escaped yet another day
