

For Eternity

Ash

When I wondered who was gonna light my way
Just holding on for the break of day
When all my hope had gone astray
I longed for somewhere I could stay
When the weary moon couldn't hear me cry
When the clocks had stopped
In the dead of night
When I had no one on my side
You gave me somewhere safe to hide
Hide

For eternity
I felt incomplete
Chasing an elusive dream
Now you're all I need

Drop my defences
Let them go
Can I find the courage to let it show?
I need you more than you'll ever know
I've found a place where I can grow

I could tell the tale
A long winding trail
Through narrow escapes
Perilous mistakes
Sudden twists of fate
And a dragon slayed
Of a heroine
Of her sweet embrace
Of her gentle grace
Oh eternally
I felt incomplete
Chasing an elusive dream
Now you're all I need
For eternity
I felt incomplete
Chasing an everlasting dream
You're all I need
Chasing an everlasting dream
You're all I need
