

Hedonism

Ash

I want more
Amplify my desire
Show me more
And I will walk through the fire
Cause I need you so badly that I go insane
Got me high with the fury of a hurricane
For a little taste
Of danger, could be danger

Heart's racing so fast
Night's falling so smooth
The moon it turns my words
To silence
Don't accept the guilt
Darling let it go
Don't you wanna know
The rising

On the run
Seeking each of the pleasure
Come on down
And hold one of my arms
You were pushed to the limit
Going break neck speeds
Slaughtering the yonders of the bitterness
The breathless chase of hedonism baby

Heart's racing so fast
Night's falling so smooth
The moon it turns my words
To silence
Don't accept the guilt
Darling let it go
Don't you wanna know
The rising
Heart's racing so fast
Night's falling so smooth
The moon it turns my words
To silence
Don't accept the guilt
Darling let it go
Don't you wanna know
The rising
