

Incoming Waves

Ash

Great day for walking
Among the grains
Watch the sign reflecting
On the incoming waves

All I've got is time
To think about the moment it went wrong
The chance to put it right
The chance to prove I could be strong

I'd cross the ocean to far away
Thoughts of you come rolling
On the incoming waves

All I've got is time
To think about the moment it went wrong
No chance to put it right
No chance to prove I could be strong
All I've got is time
To dwell upon the threshold that you crossed
The chance to even fight
The way to salvage what was lost

All I've got is time
To think about the moment it went wrong
No chance to put it right
No chance to prove I could be strong
All I've got is time
To dwell upon the threshold that you crossed
The chance to even fight
The way to salvage what was lost

Great for walking
Among the grains
