

Kamakura

Ash

Tearing it up in Tokyo
Feel like I'm home, Arigato
Taking a ride to Sapporo
You're on my mind, oh Kyoto
Coming alive in Osaka
People unite in Niigata
End of the world, Yokohama
Thank you goodnight, Sayonara

Look at your life and shake it up
Find a new love and take it up
If you want it then I will give all my heart to you
If you need me then I will do all that I can do

Feeling the love, Hiroshima
Out of our minds, Fukuoka
Dancing all night in Nagoya
Feeling so fine, Kamakura

Look at your heart and wake it up
Find a new love and break it up
If you want it then I will give all my heart to you
If you need me then I will do all that I can do

Alright!

Landing tonight in Tokyo
Making me smile, Arigato
Give me a sign, Konichiwa
Till the next time, Sayonara

Look at your life and shake it up
Find a new love and take it up
If you want it then I will give all my heart to you
If you need me then I will do all that I can do
If you want it then I will give all my heart to you
If you need me then I will do all that I can do
