

Like A God

Ash

I shock you into life
You tremble in my sight
You vow soon all this will be mine

The kingdom spread below
The landscape pure as snow
You offer yourself to me whole

You make me feel like a god
I feel like a god

You crown my intellect
You pray and genuflect
Where pain and pleasure intersect

You kneel with midnight eyes
A whiplash sacrifice
You give your body as the prize

You make me feel like a god
I feel like a god

No thought of consequence
In my realm I'll give you everything
No thought of consequence
In my realm I'll give you everything

The kingdom spread below
You're under my control
The kingdom spread below
It feels so good to have control

You make me feel like a god
I feel like a god
