

New Tattoo

Ash

Like a new tattoo I can't stop looking at you
I forget old times
Symbol of new age written on a blank page
Free the troubled minds
But your in my skin, piercing it so thin
Now I feel reborn
My flesh is dawn is telling you that your born
My heart was torn open

So turn around 180 degrees and hear the words I say
I wanna be the one permanently
So please just turn my way
I'm asking you to stay with me

Woah, yeah, oh

Born of hurt and pain, before I did it you came
I was dead inside
Cos you got that thing that no one else could bring
You make me feel alive

So turn around 180 degrees and hear the words I say
I wanna be the one permanently
Oh please just turn my way
I'm asking you to stay with me

I need you now, your an addiction
There's no doubt, feel my heart beat when your near
No there's no way to deny this connection
It is perfection were connected with the [?]

So turn around 180 degrees and hear the words I say
I wanna be the one permanently
So please just turn my way
I'm asking you to stay with me

So turn around 180 degrees and take this pain away
I wanna be the one permanently
Oh please just turn my way
I'm asking you to stay
Oh please just turn my way
I'm asking you to stay with me

Woah, yeah, oh,
Woah, yeah, oh
