

Pirates Are So 2004

Ash

We were once alone,
Strangers in a world unknown.
Trying to make our way,
Aimless through life day by day

Where we're going? It doesn't really matter, No!

Haul the sails and set no course
We're on a quest, we've no remorse (no remorse)
These bonds won't break, even on rough seas
We can ride any storm, baby you and me, yeah
You and me, yeah!

I'd like to call you mine
Bonded 'til the end of time
And every step, I'll take with you
Let's face this chaos brave and true

Where we're going? It doesn't really matter, No!

Haul the sails and set no course
We're on a quest, we've no remorse (no remorse)
These bonds won't break, even on rough seas
We can ride any storm, baby you and me, yeah
You and me, yeah!

All aboard now
All aboard,
No turning back, we're
On our own now
On our own,
Gotta take this chance and
Rock this boat yeah,
Rock this boat

Full steam ahead
Come on! Come on! Yeah!

Haul the sails and set no course
We're on a quest, we've no remorse (no remorse)
These bonds won't break, even on rough seas
We can ride any storm, baby you and me, yeah
You and me, yeah!
You and me, yeah!
