

When I'm Tired

Ash

When I'm tired my mind will wander far
Waiting in a room I feel nothing
The burning of it all makes time go so slow
And before I know they'll be nothing

I know in my heart that we're falling apart
There is no love
I know in my heart that we're falling apart
There is no love

I'm not living for the past, I'm not living for today
I'm living in a world with no future
I feel no remorse, there is no regret
I'll just let it fade into nothing

I know in my heart that we're falling apart
There is no love
I know in my heart that we're falling apart
There is no love

See it in your eyes, I can't read your mind
You know as well as I that it's over
We're living a lie we're paying the price
We had a crash and we're burning

I know in my heart that I'm falling apart
Deep inside my soul I feel nothing
I'm not living for the past, I'm not living for today
I'm living in a world with no future
