

It Can't Be You

Ashe

You smell just like childhood
Like running off the Hollywood
Time flies
Summer rays, getting burned
Getting laid for the first time
You were mine

Never wanted this to end
I don't know what else to do
I don't wanna love again
Now I know what there's to lose
Said forever on a whim
Should've known it wasn't true
I don't wanna love again

If it can't be, it can't be you, ooh-ooh
It can't be you, ooh-ooh

Jealous heart in sweaty hands
Springtime in Manhattan went so fast
It can't get back
Knew each other so very well
Don't wanna learn nobody else
Know me better, then I knew myself

Never wanted this to end
I don't know what else to do
I don't wanna love again
Now I know what there's to lose
Said forever on a whim
Should've known it wasn't true
I don't wanna love again

If it can't be, it can't be you, ooh-ooh
It can't be you, ooh-ooh

Who else knows the inner workings of my mind
The end of all my stories, I
Need to be alone sometimes
Pull my hair before I cry
Careful with these memories
Careful or they'll bury me
If I could go back, then I would

Never wanted this to end
I don't know what else to do
I don't wanna love again
Now I know what there's to lose
Said forever on a whim
Should've known it wasn't true
I don't wanna love again

If it can't be, it can't be you, ooh-ooh
It can't be you, ooh-ooh

It can't be you, ooh-
ooh (I don't think I wanna love again, I don't think I wanna love again)

It can't be you, ooh-
ooh (I don't think I wanna love again, I don't think I wanna love again)
It can't be you, ooh-
ooh (I don't think I wanna love again, I don't think I wanna love again)
It can't be you, ooh-ooh
