

Pull The Plug

Ashe

Lightning strikes power lines
Your clothes are soaked
Electrical outage
I'm thinking about if there's ice on the road

Your car is dead, you knock on the door
Come inside quickly and I'll keep you warm
Your hand's on my cheek, your coat's on the floor
The monitor flickers
I've never been sicker
So

Don't pinch me in case I'm asleep
In case you're not here, 'cause this is a dream
And we've never met, so we're not in love
In case I'm asleep, don't pull the plug

Window panes
Coffee stains
You laugh at my jokes
Getting exhausted
Unpacking boxes
What a slippery slope

We move all your things into my house
Hang pictures of us and fuck on the couch
You say it's fine if it's all in my mind
Oh you look so real, but it feels like a lie
So

Don't pinch me in case I'm asleep
In case you're not here, 'cause this is a dream
And we've never met, so we're not in love
In case I'm asleep, don't pull the—

Don't touch me, this coma is nice
Too good to be true, so just let me lie
Down in the sheets, 'cause here we're in love
In case I'm asleep, don't pull the plug

I'm fading
I'm frozen in time
The time of my life
So don't let me die
You're all that I have
And almost enough
It's all that I am
Don't pull the—

Don't pinch me, in case I'm asleep
In case you're not here, 'cause this is a dream
And we've never met, so we're not in love
In case I'm asleep, don't pull the—