

Someone To Lose

Ashe

I'm picturing us in a strawberry field
Where the lights are all off
And the garden's still growing
It's never enough
'Cause I already hear our wedding song
So let's dance to Bowie
I never been someone you thought about
I never been someone you knew that well
I never been someone you talked about
But I plan on changing that soon

You could love me like
I'm your someone to lose
You could love me like
I'm your someone to lose
Someone to lose, lose, lose, lose
Lose, lose, lose, someone to

I left you a note on the hood of your car
And hoped that you'd call me sooner or later
It's good to be bold when you aim for the heart
So without warning I kissed your lips
No, no, that wasn't something you thought about
Not something I typically do
But now that I gave you something to talk about
Now I think that you want me too

You could love me like
I'm your someone to lose
You could love me like
I'm your someone to lose
Someone to lose, lose, lose, lose
Lose, lose, lose, someone to

I heard all your friends talk
I know I got you thinking
I'm everything you want
You don't know what you've been missing
I heard all your friends talk
I know I got you thinking
I'm everything you want
You don't know what you've been missing

You could love me like
I'm your someone to lose
(You don't know what you've been missing)
You could love me like
I'm your someone to lose
(Now you got someone to lose)

Picturing us in a strawberry field
Where the lights are...
And the garden growing (that's cool)
And the garden growing (that's amazing)
