

Saw myself in you, didn't know who I was Didn't need a map, didn't think I was lost with you
But you don't stand a chance when you're young and in love Right out of the gate, don't it all seem great?
Tried to tell my mother that it felt like fate, but she brushed
At our love and she laughed 'cause we're young, and in love

Ooh, and I hate that she was right
Didn't wanna say goodbye
You loved me, I loved you too
Ooh, maybe in another life
'Cause this one wasn't right
You loved me, I loved you too, ooh, ooh, soon

Baby, we could meet when we're thirty-three It's hard to keep a love you meet at fifteen
But my best friend was wrong when she said, "You're just young,
not in love"

Ooh, and I hate that she was right
Didn't wanna say goodbye
You loved me, I loved you too, ooh, ooh, ooh (You loved me, I l oved you)
Ooh, maybe in another life
'Cause this one wasn't right
You loved me, I loved you too, ooh, ooh, soon (You loved me, I loved you)
