

Chills

Asher Angel

Maybe I'll get over you
Shoulda known, I never learn, oh, no oh
It's a last memory, a photograph
Can't let it burn, oh, no oh

Am I losing my mind?
Or is this a goodbye?
Even though that I try
I still get chills
If my heart could rewind
Then I'd look at the sign
When I knew you were mine

I still get chills
Over me, over you
We were one, now we two
I can't lie, it's the truth
I still get chills
What we did, how we do
Hell and back, we went through
I can't lie, it's the truth
I still get chills

Knew it was a big mistake to let you go
And now it hurts, yeah, oh, no oh
Hard to know if I'm too late
To make it right, to make it worse, no
Am I losing my mind?
Or is this a goodbye?
Even though that I try
I still get chills
If my heart could rewind
Then I'd look at the sign
When I knew you were mine

I still get chills
Over me, over you
We were one, now we two
I can't lie, it's the truth
I still get chills
What we did, how we do
Hell and back, we went through
I can't lie, it's the truth
I still get chills, yeah

Oh no

I still, I still, I still get chills
Yeah
Pariripapapara, pariripapapa
I still get chills
