Guilty

Asher Angel

Sittin' on the roof of your mother's house
Future was brighter than the sunrise
It was so perfect till it wasn't
Your sister texts me why I'm not around
Debatin' if I should tell her why
50/50 it'll make me feel better

Did it happen more than once?
Was it random?
Yeah, yeah, yeah

When you're with him, were you thinkin' of me?
Spent a whole week just thinkin' 'bout, ooh, you
Do you feel guilty?
If you're happy, can't say that I am
If you're human, then you give a damn
Who you? Do you feel guilty?

Maybe we'll be friends or maybe we won't
That's the hardest thing about bein' adults
Half the time you're vulnerable
Half the time you're fuckin' cold
I should wear a winter coat
Just so that you're in the know
So, in case you didn't know
I had to tell our friends we're not together
And believe it when they said I could do better

Did it happen more than once?
Was it random?
Yeah, yeah, yeah

When you're with him, were you thinkin' of me?
Spent a whole week just thinkin' about, ooh, you
Do you feel guilty?
If you're happy, can't say that I am
If you're human, then you give a damn
Who you? (Who you?)
Do you feel guilty?

Do you feel guilty?
