

Inner Warrior

Asher Monroe

Your left alone in the dark and cold
But you keep on ending up at the same crossroad which way do I go
You're feeling weak but your hope is strong
Looking for a new day but the past keeps holding on
Keeps beating you down down
We don't want to feel like we did that day
We don't want no problems find a way to solve em
There's only really one way to change forget yesterday start from a new page

Forget yesterday start from a new page (set you free)
(A new page)
Find your inner warrior
Forget yesterday I'm riding on a new wave (new wave)

Past mistakes don't make or break
But shape us into who we really are
Battle scars
To break these chains love will erase
Positive minds will rearrange the stars
Time to leave our mark... mark

We don't want to feel like we did that day
We don't want no problems find a way to solve em
There's only really one way to change forget yesterday start from a new page

Find your inner warrior
Forget yesterday start from a new page (set you free)
(A new page)
Find your inner warrior
Forget yesterday I'm riding on a new wave (new wave)

Ah ah (set you free)
Ah ah (just believe)

Outro:
You're left alone in the dark and cold
But you keep on ending up at the same crossroad (set you free)

(Your inner warrior)

You feeling weak but your hope is strong
Looking for a new day but the past keeps holding on

Past mistakes don't make or break
But shape us into who we really are (set you free)

To break these chains love will erase
Positive minds will rearrange the stars
I'm riding on a new wave
