Sweet September

Asher Monroe

18, she's out of luck
Got no money lost her love
Beauty queen, won't you pack your bags tonight?

Heart bleeds, but that's alright
Cause on these streets she learned to fight
So catch the first train & say your last goodbye

And she goes, there she goes, drifting away
Yeah she knows, she knows, there's no reason to stay (mmm mmm)

Sweet September always remember
Sweet Sanela never say never
She keeps running running running running running away
Every sweet September, we'll be together

New town, erase the past
Rise like a phoenix from the ash
Change of name to turn her life around

Skates the city, never speaks
Sold her silver on the streets
Played the stars like pawns without a sound, a sound

There she goes, there she goes, drifting away
Yeah she knows, yeah she knows, there's no reason to stay (hmm hmm)

Sweet September always remember
Sweet Sanela never say never
She's keeps running running running running running away
Sweet September, we'll be together

Second chances, past you can't escape
Memories turn over and over again
I'll fly through every twist of fate with you, with you

Sweet September
Sweet surrender (yeah!)
Sweet September always remember
Sweet Sanela never say never
She keeps running running running running running away
She keeps running running running running running away
Sweet September, we'll be together
Oh
