Life is a trip
Ripe and gone in a jiff
Honor the gift 'cause life
Never did come with a list
No directions
More like it come with a lift
Come with a st-stuttering, stumbling flip
Right, it come at you quick

Try to be slick, try to be hip
Tryna be trying in it
Try to admit, that ain't who I am
You lying, I am a giant in this
I am alive and enriched
I am top five in the flesh, that ain't of flex
I am if science was mixed
With the relig', I am the lion and witch

And the wardrobe
Is as fly as a pimp

I ain't a stiff, I am the pilot of this
High as the sky as I drift
Mind is in bliss, mine isn't mine
It's a glimpse in line aligned with the sixth
Sign in a sense, sight's beyond in a sense
Your light's behind in a sense
My past life was last night in a sense
I am different

I ain't defending to try to dismiss
Quit your crying and bitching 'cause kindness is lit

Being nice is the best
If you don't like what I say
You probably so ugly from under the bed
Need someone to study, come check on your head
Get what you give
Numbers ain't nothing but digits, fuck what you spend
Yeah, 'cept with your friends
Only be fun if you with 'em

Fun to forgive 'em, fun to become with a vision
Something you want from beginning
Not some when someone's in prison
With the bu-business
Making their own decisions, shit
Ain't tryna diss
Do what they must for a living

Hustle and kill themselves just for the children
Leave 'em a trust and a will
Then hope you instill them with trust
And some will then, develop the skill
Not just for the field men
Be in touch with their feelings
Stealing because you're in fear of inferior

You would be nuts to reveal them, weak
But if nothing is real, then
Accept how you feel then
Best to assess and accept how you feel
Get buddy [?] and Netflix and chill
Express it and build
Still more expensive than stealing
Enough of that shpiel, I hope that you grow and you heal
I know that you, know that you will, peace
(Shit, I know that you know!)
