

Bad Apple Magic

Asher Roth

Folks, I'm sure you know, unfortunately no more grow
Someone chose the lower road, broke into the home and stole
The entire operation, I was trying to explain
Self-reliance is the way, these guys decide to go astray
Took the Hazy OG Larry and the Acapulco Gold
Afghani Afgoo that would knock you out cold
Sour diesel took a while but it helped us freestyle
And even our indica asleep in the bread aisle
Normally I'm not mad and I would let this moment pass
But it's bad because the fact they took the stash of retrohash

Now class, a couple notes I noticed from the scene at Apparently these strains are in the hands of the police
Now make come as relief means justice will be done
But something I didn't tell you folks when this all begun
The hash is laced with magic and results would be tragic
If it happens to be snatched up by a soul that shouldn't have i t

Magnetic poles are formed from when you exhale the smoke
And open up a portal to an entire other world
The wrong burst of smokes it rather the one who's chosen
There'll be a small explosion followed by earth's erosion
Important that the chosen one is sure to smoke it first
So the portal that's created brings abundance to the earth
But the officer that has it is a former bad apple in my class
That couldn't hack it [?]
After retrohash ever since he became police
He believes he's the one that is meant to smoke the weed
Don't believe it if you wish but certainly no gag
Until the hash has been recovered I am forced to cancel class
I know this is a drag and comes as bad news to some
But we must get the hash back before the damage has been done
