My life's incredible, well, life in general, wow
These berries edible, yeah, this weed is medical, ah
I got ahead by putting my head on a pedestal
Instead of being fed an embellishment for a better world
This one's acceptable, I keep my rep and go
No need to weapon hold, my heat's in this receptacle
Some people cheat and feel the need to be deceptive
But to me the key is let the evil be, just redirect, it's easy
Please don't be impressed, got the greenhouse for effect
Volume three right at your neck and all up on your internet
Calm Maurice in far east on the beats, he be flexing
I ain't sleeping till I'm treating, eating sweets with Judy Jet son
For some reason I feel destined, disbelief is for the flesh
I been leaving it to seek for a little less than a decade
Best made rests in the breast plate
Fresh as it gets, can attest when you press play
