

Teammates

Asher Roth

Ayo snap out of it
Ash, you need to stop doubting it
Puff ya chest out
Be proud of it
Maybe move around a bit
Be excited for what's coming
Smile when you wake
Life's funny
But it'll beat the beak off you
Eat the weak
Aw true
Need to leap off them feet
To see all new
All due praise
Hallelujah
Need to make do
With the blue running
Through ya
"Who ya?"
Caterpillar to Alice
As sadness turns to callus
Don't lose your childish
Balance it
Palace is only a mile away
Lonely and tired, hey
Rome wasn't found in a day
Nor were them Palisades
But either way
How much can you tolerate?
Hoping for a finer fate
Mind is on nirvana
Til you find your lake
River or beach
Or shit's creek
It's figure of speech
From the streets
To the pinnacle's peak

Don't let it wear you down
You stand your ground
Go make your family proud
You can't abandon it
The plan is now
We disenchanted with the standard style
But we just stand in file
And nothings changed
We must demand the dial
The land was found
Or stole or granted with some phantom power
We banned the crown but now the cameras
They stare us down
We can't compare
That isn't fair
This ain't our parent's town
So can't you brand us
With them bearings
We should to tear it down

Start again
Aw damn it
This whole planet
Could all vanish
While our men argue
Who party planned it
Mild manners
Can't stall damage
Need gargantuan plans
Part of me's offhanded
The jars rancid
But I embark
When it's hard
Discard panic
Skarsgard as Tarzan
Cause our advantage is on land
Smart and inventive
So try to manage
We on brand
Far as the stars
Cross the Atlantic
We on

Fire
I got you stuck off the realness
From the streets
To the pinnacle's peak
Realness
For you
