

Way More Fun

So they say you should trade your fairytales
For a day when the rain comes
But it dreams to believe, don't care to fail
'Cause to me it's way more fun
So they say you should trade your fairytales
For a day when the rain comes
But it dreams to believe, don't care to fail
'Cause to me it's way more fun (Way more fun)

Not everybody's gonna be a rapper when they grow up (Yeah)
Can't everybody play ball like LeBron James (Swish)
Shouldn't matter to you if you know you're never gonna blow up
Don't let it stop you from chasing your dreams (Don't let it)
But it's crazy that maybe your fate has been waitin' for you to call its name (Oh no)
But imagine delayin' 'cause they nay-sayin', oh that would be a shame

So they say you should trade your fairytales
For a day when the rain comes
But it dreams to believe, don't care to fail
'Cause to me it's way more fun
So they say you should trade your fairytales
For a day when the rain comes
But it dreams to believe, don't care to fail
'Cause to me it's way more fun (Way more fun)

I wanna book a trip to Bali, Indonesia
Get a hotel in the forest with someone gorgeous
I wanna zipline by the shinin' summertime
I wanna have sex all night to Ginuwine
I need to take a week after nap six hours on the jet
To a place that I'll embrace where the water is wet
I'll bring a bitch in the Sun, and kick it, that be the best
Just live, no stress, I need that, oh yeah
Told the bitch, "Blow the dick like a weed pack"
Hit a school with a check, time to give back
I love my life, God know that
Fuck it, rewind time, we gon' go back

So they say you should trade your fairytales
For a day when the rain comes
But it dreams to believe, don't care to fail
'Cause to me it's way more fun
So they say you should trade your fairytales
