

Killing Time

Ashers

Just speak the truth or shut your mouth
Cause I can't stand to hear the lies you tell
Beauty's skin deep but inside your ugly
Deranged, insane, so clearly more than me

Looks that kill for all to see
Ten years pass where will you be?
What a pretty face, that's part of the chase
Just look inside only to find
There's nothing here for me.

My mind is fucked it's been years
I'm searching for what seems is just not there
Live and to learn, maybe some day I'll care
Some say shallow pleasure is just human nature

But you looked so good
You act so misunderstood
My instinct said to fucking run
I didn't then but now I'm done
