Ashes Remain

This world calls out my name
But I'm playing that game, oh
I'm not the same
I'm not the way I was before
'Cause you broke my change
You took the weight of my shame, oh
You took the blame
And gave me life and so much more

I've seen the bottom
Drowning in the bottle
Ugly, dead and hollow
Nowhere to fall, nothing at all
Hard to swallow

(Are you ready? Let's go)

My past can't hold me down
'Cause my home is found (Oh)
Redemption has come
And turned the whole world upside down

(Captain)

I cannot see but believe that
The truth inside of me
Is bigger than all I can do
Without your hand
I must, gotta trust,
Leave my baggage at the door
You're the cure, nothing else can fix
This hole inside my chest

I've seen the bottom
Drowning in a bottle
Ugly, dead and hollow
Nowhere to fall, nothing at all
Hard to swallow

I've seen the bottom
Drowning in a bottle
Ugly, dead and hollow
Nowhere to fall, nothing at all
Hard to swallow

I've been to the bottom
Drowning in a bottle
I've been dead and hollow
Drowning in a bottle

(Are you ready? Captain)

I've seen the bottom
Drowning in a bottle
I've been dead and hollow
Nowhere to fall, nothing at all

I've seen the bottom
Drowning in a bottle
Hard to swallow

Whoa
Hard to swallow
Whoa

I cannot see but believe that
The truth inside of me
Without your hand
I must, gotta trust,
You're the cure
